Dear Parents/Carers of Key Stage 2 Children,

Guess the Number of Sweets in the Jar Competition

Thank you so much for allowing your children to buy squishies, pencils and cakes last half term. With your help, the Reading Ambassadors raised £400 to buy the Reading Shed.

To buy some floor cushions and books for the Reading Shed, we are having a 'Guess the number of sweets in the jar' Competition. The winner will win an Easter Egg, a book and some other goodies. There will also be 2 runners up. [Unfortunately, the jar of sweets will not be given as a prize because of intolerances.]

It will cost 50p per guess. Your child will need to bring in 50p for each guess they make. [They can have up to 4 guesses.] Your child is responsible for looking after their own money. The guessing cards will be available at break time on Wednesday and Thursday only.

The child who guesses correctly wins the main prize. If nobody guesses correctly, the prizes will be given to the closest guesses.

All the money raised will be used to buy the floor cushions and new books for the Reading Shed. Any money left over will go towards the PTA fund to buy additional resources to support the children in school.

Thank you again for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Qudsia Siddique
Deputy Head of the Lower School
