Dear Parents/Carers,

RE: Guess the Number of Sweets in the Jar Competition [and cake sale]

Thank you so much for allowing your children to buy squishies, pencils and cakes last term. With your help, the Reading Ambassadors raised around £300 to buy banded reading books for the school.

To buy more books for Key Stage 1, we are having a 'Guess the number of sweets in the jar' Competition. The winner will win the jar.

It will cost 50p per guess. KS2 children will need to bring in 50p for each guess they make. [They can have up to 2 guesses.] Your child is responsible for looking after their own money. They will be able to do this at break time on Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th April only.

Reception and KS1 children can guess after school on Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th April so that an adult can help them!

The child who guesses correctly wins the jar of sweets. If nobody guesses correctly, the prize will be given to the closest guess.

We will also have a cake sale on Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th April at break time. Cakes will be 50p each. The children must look after their own money.

All the money raised will be used to buy more banded books for key stage 1. Any money left over will go towards the PTA fund to buy additional resources to support the children across the school.

Thank you again for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Qudsia Siddique
Deputy Head of the Lower School
